Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not tremendously significant, three full-time student figures already higher than in the last year, and the greatest number since 1967.

He said the final headcount enrollment in the fall of 1974 was 7,349, the highest in the school's history until 7,355 registered for the spring semester of 1975. He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

International Harvester announced that it was operating with only about 55 to 60 per cent of its normal first-shift workers. It employs 5,300 here. General Electric curtailed operations at Appliance Park but declined to say how many workers were absent. All off-days and vacations for Jefferson County police officers were cancelled and some 400 Louisville policemen went through a refresher course Wednesday on crowd-control techniques.

He said that while he doesn't suspect anyone in particular in his department, he plans polygraph tests to exonerate his people. Dates of the disappearances of the other two bonds have been elusive as well, but the first may have been in January of this year, according to one source. Manning said that stricter security measures are being implemented in the department, and a sign is prominent on the radio room door, prohibiting entry by anyone other than the radio operator, the shift leader, and the chief. Mayor John Ed Scott said this morning that he doesn't have any information on the matter, but promised full disclosure of any developments in that area.

of the exports to the Russians. The Agriculture secretary said negotiations between the Labor Department and the unions are continuing, as well as discussions with the Russians. The United States is seeking to obtain higher shipping rates from the Russians, thereby assuring that more U.S. ships and American seamen will be used in making the grain deliveries. Until the boycott is ended and the shipping rates are decided, Butz said, a projected new deal involving an estimated 8.5 million metric tons to the Soviets should be delayed. "It's just too emotional an issue," he said. Butz said that recent food price increases were unrelated to the latest grain sales to the Soviets. He described the increases as only "coincidental with the reports of grain sales to the U.S.S.R."

INTRODUCING THE KROGER

PRICE PATROL

PROOF THAT KROGER IS DOING WHAT IT TAKES TO BE THE LOW PRICE LEADER IN YOUR AREA

The Kroger Price Patrol will be checking prices at major stores and so-called discounters in your area. The results of these price checks will be readily available in your local Kroger store and posted in a notebook hanging from the store office. These results will let you know how well we're meeting our commitment to a price policy that will lower your total food bill. Watch for the Kroger Price Patrol when you're shopping. They're helping us do what it takes to stay the low price leader in your area.

LOW PRICES?... KROGER'S GOT 'EM!

There's a new study by the motor vehicle sales, a new study by the Legislative Research Commission (LRC) staff concludes.

A report by LRC staff members Edith Schwab and Donald Roney recommends that the five per cent usage tax on new and used car sales should be on the actual money that changes hands and not on such "fictitious" standards as "manufacturer's suggested retail price" or "blue book value." The report, entitled "Motor Vehicles: Certificates of Title and Taxation," is available upon request from the Legislative Research Commission, Public Information Office, State Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601. The report also includes recommendations on how Kentucky could amount on which the tax should be based.

In the section on taxation the report recommends that in the sale of motor vehicles "the tax should be on the actual sales price of the motor vehicle with an allowance being made for a trade-in."

"This would bring Kentucky's method of taxation in line with that of the majority of states," the report adds. At present, a person who buys a new car in Kentucky is charged five per cent of the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the car with no allowance for a trade-in. On a used car the purchaser is charged five per cent of the blue book value (the price suggested by the National Automobile Dealers' Association for various makes and models of used cars.)

Responses from 48 states to a questionnaire indicate that Montana, Oklahoma and South Dakota are the only other states that tax on the manufacturer's suggested retail price in the sale of a new car.

Kentucky is also in the minority in not making an allowance for trade-ins in taxing new car sales, the report says. On used car sales most states tax the actual sales price of a vehicle rather than its book value when there is no trade-in, the report adds.

Bills or resolutions regarding a title law have been introduced in every regular session of the General Assembly except on since 1956.

"Forty-nine states are convinced that a certificate of title is the most effective way in which to prove ownership of a motor vehicle," the report says.

At present, in Kentucky, a person must present a bill of sale and a manufacturer's certificate of origin in order to register a new vehicle. A previous registration slip is all that is required to register a vehicle previously owned by a Kentucky resident, however.

A title law would prevent anyone from investing in an automobile on which there was an outstanding mortgage, the report says.

"If the seller has mortgaged his motor vehicle, he would have no certificate of title to deliver to the pur-

Such a law could lead to lower interest rates on motor vehicle loans "since it would lessen the risk for the lenders that a motor vehicle subject to a lien would be sold," the report says.

One argument against a title law is that it would increase the cost of registering a vehicle.

A key question in considering a title law is whether titles would be issued locally or from a central location.

Central issuance would make it easier to determine if a vehicle was stolen, thereby discouraging auto thefts, the report says. Certificates also would be harder to steal than if they were scattered throughout 120 counties, it adds.

Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not final, points to an all-time high headcount and full-time student figures that are the highest in the school's history. The figures are "tremendously significant" three full-time student figures already higher than in the final enrollment report a year ago. He listed these incomplete figures:

all-time student enrollment of 342 and more than 600 full-time students, an increase of 342 and more than 600 from the 5,347 last fall, and number since 1971. (time freshman enrollment of 199 and more than 1100 from the 1,735 a year ago, a record number since 1968. time full-time freshman 1,313, an increase of 143 and more than 12 percent greater than the 1,170 last year, and the greatest number since 1967.

Gantt said the final headcount enrollment in the fall of 1974 was 7,349, the highest in the school's history until 7,355 registered for the spring semester of 1975.

He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

The main disadvantage of a centralized system is the time delay in certifying vehicles, the report says. Automobile dealers have claimed such a system would hinder the quick resale of used vehicles.

The best system for Kentucky, the report says, may be to issue titles locally in the same manner as present registration certificates, but to install a computer in each local office that would be tied to a central office where ownership could be verified before a title was issued.
The report has been presented to a special legislative subcommittee which has been studying the related issues of titles and taxation. The members include Representatives Steven L. Beshear, D-Lexington, chairman; W. Edward Whitfield, D-Hopkinsville; and Senator Doug Moseley, R-Columbia.

Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not final, points to an all-time high headcount and full-time student figures that are the tremely significant" three full-time student figures already higher than in the final enrollment report a year ago. He listed these incomplete figures:

Full-time student enrollment of 342 and more than 600 other than the 5,347 last fall, and a number since 1971.
Full-time freshman enrollment of 199 and more than 110 other than the 1,735 a year ago, a number since 1968.
Time full-time freshman of 1,313, an increase of 143 and more than 12 percent greater than the 1,170 last year, and the greatest number since 1967.

Gantt said the final headcount enrollment in the fall of 1974 was 7,349, the highest in the school's history until 7,355 registered for the spring semester of 1975.

He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

Itted, however, that absenteeism could be higher than usual for any. Ford Motor Co. plants suspensions almost immediately after 10:30 a.m. first shift starting spokesman at the truck plant said of the 1,600 work force didn't a spokesman for the auto and truck assembly plant, while declining to give specific numbers, said "We didn't have enough people to run the place."

International Harvester announced that it was operating with only about 55 to 60 per cent of its normal first-shift workers. It employs 5,300 here.

General Electric curtailed operations at Appliance Park but declined to say how many workers were absent.

All off-days and vacations for Jefferson County police officers were cancelled and some 400 Louisville policemen went through a refresher course Wednesday on crowd-control techniques.

Missing Bond Money Investigated At MPD

Money amounting to nearly $1,200 accounted for at City Hall, to sources close to the matter. Ledger & Times investigation of the disappearance of the money, in three separate incidents, places within City Hall. Exact figures were difficult to obtain, sources indicated that $570, $200, and $400 have turned the latest the night of August 7. Chief Brent Manning said this at while no official report has on the incidents, that an investigation is definitely being conducted.

He said that while he doesn't suspect anyone in particular in his department, he plans polygraph tests to exonerate his people.

Dates of the disappearances of the other two bonds have been elusive as well, but the first may have been in January of this year, according to one source.

Manning said that stricter security measures are being implemented in the department, and a sign is prominent on the radio room door, prohibiting entry by anyone other than the radio operator, the shift leader, and the chief.

Mayor John Ed Scott said this morning that he doesn't have any information on the matter, but promised full disclosure of any developments in that area.

of the exports to the Russians.

The Agriculture secretary said negotiations between the Labor Department and the unions are continuing, as well as discussions with the Russians. The United States is seeking to obtain higher shipping rates from the Russians, thereby assuring that more U.S. ships and American seamen will be used in making the grain deliveries.

Until the boycott is ended and the shipping rates are decided, Butz said, a projected new deal involving an estimated 8.5 million metric tons to the Soviets should be delayed.

"It's just too emotional an issue," he said.

Butz said that recent food price increases were unrelated to the latest grain sales to the Soviets. He described the increases as only "coincidental with the reports of grain sales to the U.S.S.R."

Unjustified

he certificate would be held holder until such mortgage isfied," the report adds. w could lead to lower ins on motor vehicle loans ers that a motor vehicle subject to a lien would be sold," the report says. One argument against a title law is that it would increase the cost of registering a vehicle.

A key question in considering a title law is whether titles would be issued locally or from a central location. Central issuance would make it easier to determine if a vehicle was stolen, thereby discouraging auto thefts, the report says. Certificates also would be harder to steal than if they were scattered throughout 120 counties, it adds.

The main disadvantage of a centralized system is the time delay in certifying vehicles, the report says. Automobile dealers have claimed such a system would hinder the quick resale of used vehicles.

The best system for Kentucky, the report says, may be to issue titles locally in the same manner as present registration certificates, but to install a computer in each local office that would be tied to a central office where ownership could be verified before a title was issued.

The report has been presented to a special legislative subcommittee which has been studying the related issues of titles and taxation. The members include Representatives Steven L. Beshear, D-Lexington, chairman; W. Edward Whitfield, D-Hopkinsville; and Senator Doug Moseley, R-Columbia.

A report by LRC staff members Edith Schwab and Donald Roney recommends that the five per cent usage tax on new and used car sales should be on the actual money that changes hands and not on such "fictitious" standards as "manufacturer's suggested retail price" or "blue book value."

The report, entitled "Motor Vehicles: Certificates of Title and Taxation," is available upon request from the Legislative Research Commission, Public Information Office, State Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

The report also includes recommendations on how Kentucky could equal sales price of the motor vehicle with an allowance being made for a trade-in."

"This would bring Kentucky's method of taxation in line with that of the majority of states," the report adds.

At present, a person who buys a new car in Kentucky is charged five per cent of the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the car with no allowance for a trade-in. On a used car the purchaser is charged five per cent of the blue book value (the price suggested by the National Automobile Dealers' Association for various makes and models of used cars.)

questionnaire indicate that Montana, Oklahoma and South Dakota are the only other states that tax on the manufacturer's suggested retail price in the sale of a new car.

Kentucky is also in the minority in not making an allowance for trade-ins in taxing new car sales, the report says.

On used car sales most states tax the actual sales price of a vehicle rather than its book value when there is no trade-in, the report adds.

Bills or resolutions regarding a title law have been introduced in every regular session of the General Assembly except on since 1956.

motor vehicle," the report says.

At present, in Kentucky, a person must present a bill of sale and a manufacturer's certificate of origin in order to register a new vehicle. A previous registration slip is all that is required to register a vehicle previously owned by a Kentucky resident, however.

A title law would prevent anyone from investing in an automobile on which there was an outstanding mortgage, the report says.

"If the seller has mortgaged his motor vehicle, he would have no certificate of title to deliver to the pur-

Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not final, points to an all-time high headcount and full-time student figures that are the highest in the school's history. The report also indicates that the number of full-time students is "tremendously significant" three full-time student figures already higher than in the final enrollment report a year ago. He listed these incomplete figures:

Full-time student enrollment of 3,422, an increase of 342 and more than 600 greater than the 5,347 last fall, and the highest number since 1971.

Full-time freshman enrollment of 1,199, an increase of 199 and more than 11 greater than the 1,735 a year ago, the greatest number since 1968.

Part-time full-time freshman of 1,313, an increase of 143 and more than 12 percent greater than the 1,170 last year, and the greatest number since 1967.

Gantt said the final headcount enrollment in the fall of 1974 was 7,349, the highest in the school's history until 7,355 registered for the spring semester of 1975.

He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

More Grain Deals Until Dispute Over

Court orders in Texas and New York allowing grain already purchased by the Soviets to be loaded on ships, he expects further impact from that, called by the International Union of Men's Association and endorsed and the maritime unions.

It will be when they attempt to get or American flag bottoms."

Only ships from third countries are in American ports to pick up shipments for delivery to the Soviet Union, which has purchased 9.8 million tons of U.S. grain so far this year, another half-million remaining available.

As predicted sharp increases in food prices as a result of the boycott, Butz repeated his own prediction of a 1.5 per cent increase in food prices in early 1976 as a result of the exports to the Russians.

The Agriculture secretary said negotiations between the Labor Department and the unions are continuing, as well as discussions with the Russians. The United States is seeking to obtain higher shipping rates from the Russians, thereby assuring that more U.S. ships and American seamen will be used in making the grain deliveries.

Until the boycott is ended and the shipping rates are decided, Butz said, a projected new deal involving an estimated 8.5 million metric tons to the Soviets should be delayed.

The certificate would be held by the lender until such mortgage was satisfied," the report adds. The law could lead to lower interest rates on motor vehicle loans, which would lessen the risk for the lenders that a motor vehicle subject to a lien would be sold," the report says.

One argument against a title law is that it would increase the cost of registering a vehicle.

A key question in considering a title law is whether titles would be issued locally or from a central location.

Central issuance would make it easier to determine if a vehicle was stolen, thereby discouraging auto thefts, the report says. Certificates also would be harder to steal than if they were scattered throughout 120 counties, it adds.

The main disadvantage of a centralized system is the time delay in certifying vehicles, the report says. Automobile dealers have claimed such a system would hinder the quick resale of used vehicles.

The best system for Kentucky, the report says, may be to issue titles locally in the same manner as present registration certificates, but to install a computer in each local office that would be tied to a central office where ownership could be verified before a title was issued.

The report has been presented to a special legislative subcommittee which has been studying the related issues of titles and taxation. The members include Representatives Steven L. Beshear, D-Lexington, chairman; W. Edward Whitfield, D-Hopkinsville; and Senator Doug Moseley, R-Columbia.

A report by LRC staff members Edith Schwab and Donald Roney recommends that the five per cent usage tax on new and used car sales should be on the actual money that changes hands and not on such "fictitious" standards as "manufacturer's suggested retail price" or "blue book value."

The report, entitled "Motor Vehicles: Certificates of Title and Taxation," is available upon request from the Legislative Research Commission, Public Information Office, State Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

The report also includes recommendations on how Kentucky could war sales price of the motor vehicle with an allowance being made for a trade-in.

"This would bring Kentucky's method of taxation in line with that of the majority of states," the report adds.

At present, a person who buys a new car in Kentucky is charged five per cent of the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the car with no allowance for a trade-in. On a used car the purchaser is charged five per cent of the blue book value (the price suggested by the National Automobile Dealers' Association for various makes and models of used cars.)

questionnaire indicate that Montana, Oklahoma and South Dakota are the only other states that tax on the manufacturer's suggested retail price in the sale of a new car.

Kentucky is also in the minority in not making an allowance for trade-ins in taxing new car sales, the report says.

On used car sales most states tax the actual sales price of a vehicle rather than its book value when there is no trade-in, the report adds.

Bills or resolutions regarding a title law have been introduced in every regular session of the General Assembly except on since 1956.

motor vehicle," the report says.

At present, in Kentucky, a person must present a bill of sale and a manufacturer's certificate of origin in order to register a new vehicle. A previous registration slip is all that is required to register a vehicle previously owned by a Kentucky resident, however.

A title law would prevent anyone from investing in an automobile on which there was an outstanding mortgage, the report says.

"If the seller has mortgaged his motor vehicle, he would have no certificate of title to deliver to the pur-

Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not final, points to an all-time high headcount and full-time student figures that are the most significant three full-time student figures already higher than in the final enrollment report a year ago. He listed these incomplete figures:

Full-time student enrollment of 3,422 and more than 6,000 total students, an increase of 342 and more than 11,000 over the 3,080 and 5,347 last fall, and the highest number since 1971.
Full-time freshman enrollment of 1,199 and more than 11,000 total freshmen, an increase of 199 and more than 11,000 over the 1,000 and 1,735 a year ago, the highest number since 1968.
Time full-time freshman of 1,313, an increase of 143 and more than 12 percent greater than the 1,170 last year, and the greatest number since 1967.

Gantt said the final headcount enrollment in the fall of 1974 was 7,349, the highest in the school's history until 7,355 registered for the spring semester of 1975. He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

County Schools Open Absenteeism And Protests

This was broken up by police. In said some buses were half-filled on the first day of school, a number of parents always bring their children in their own cars. It is noted, however, that absenteeism would be higher than usual for an average day. Ford Motor Co. plants suspensions almost immediately after 6:30 a.m. first shift starting spokesman at the truck plant said that of the 1,600 work force didn't a spokesman for the auto and truck assembly plant, while declining to give specific numbers, said "We didn't have enough people to run the place."

International Harvester announced that it was operating with only about 55 to 60 percent of its normal first-shift workers. It employs 5,300 here.

General Electric curtailed operations at Appliance Park but declined to say how many workers were absent.

All off-days and vacations for Jefferson County police officers were cancelled and some 400 Louisville policemen went through a refresher course Wednesday on crowd-control techniques.

Missing Bond Money Investigated At MPD

By DAVID HILL
Ledger & Times Staff-Writer

Money amounting to nearly $1,200, unaccounted for at City Hall, is the subject of a matter being investigated by the Jefferson County Police Department. The investigation was prompted by the disappearance of the money in three separate incidents, in places within City Hall. The exact figures were difficult to precisely, sources indicated that $570, $200, and $400 have turned up, the latest the night of August 7. Chief Brent Manning said this while no official report has been filed on the incidents, that an investigation is definitely being conducted.

He said that while he doesn't suspect anyone in particular in his department, he plans polygraph tests to exonerate his people.

Dates of the disappearances of the other two bonds have been elusive as well, but the first may have been in January of this year, according to one source.

Manning said that stricter security measures are being implemented in the department, and a sign is prominent on the radio room door, prohibiting entry by anyone other than the radio operator, the shift leader, and the chief.

Mayor John Ed Scott said this morning that he doesn't have any information on the matter, but promised full disclosure of any developments in that area.

More Grain Deals Until Dispute Over

A court order in Texas and New York allowing grain already purchased by the Soviets to be loaded on ships, he expects further impact from the court, called by the International Men's Association and endorsed by the maritime unions. A test will be when they attempt to load or American flag bottoms."

Only ships from third countries are allowed in American ports to pick up shipments for delivery to the Soviet Union, which has purchased 9.8 million tons of U.S. grain so far this year, another half-million remaining sales.

As predicted sharp increases in food prices as a result of the war, Butz repeated his own prediction of a 1.5 percent increase in food prices in early 1976 as a result of the exports to the Russians.

The Agriculture secretary said negotiations between the Labor Department and the unions are continuing, as well as discussions with the Russians. The United States is seeking to obtain higher shipping rates from the Russians, thereby assuring that more U.S. ships and American seamen will be used in making the grain deliveries.

Until the boycott is ended and the shipping rates are decided, Butz said, a projected new deal involving an estimated 8.5 million metric tons to the Soviets should be delayed.

"It's just too emotional an issue," he said.

Butz said that recent food price increases were unrelated to the latest grain sales to the Soviets. He described the increases as only "coincidental with the reports of grain sales to the U.S.S.R."

Unjustified

The certificate would be held by the lender until such mortgage was satisfied," the report adds. The law could lead to lower interest rates on motor vehicle loans.

It would lessen the risk for the lenders that a motor vehicle subject to a lien would be sold," the report says.

One argument against a title law is that it would increase the cost of registering a vehicle.

A key question in considering a title law is whether titles would be issued locally or from a central location.

Central issuance would make it easier to determine if a vehicle was stolen, thereby discouraging auto thefts, the report says. Certificates also would be harder to steal than if they were scattered throughout 120 counties, it adds.

The main disadvantage of a centralized system is the time delay in certifying vehicles, the report says. Automobile dealers have claimed such a system would hinder the quick resale of used vehicles.

The best system for Kentucky, the report says, may be to issue titles locally in the same manner as present registration certificates, but to install a computer in each local office that would be tied to a central office where ownership could be verified before a title was issued.

The report has been presented to a special legislative subcommittee which has been studying the related issues of titles and taxation. The members include Representatives Steven L. Beshear, D-Lexington, chairman; W. Edward Whitfield, D-Hopkinsville; and Senator Doug Mosely, R-Columbia.

Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not final, points to an all-time high headcount and full-time student figures that are the highest in several years.

tremely significant" three full-time student figures already higher than in the final enrollment report a year ago. He listed these incomplete figures:

He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

KROGER SENIOR CITIZENS SAVINGS PROGRAM

The Kroger Co. is proud to announce a plan to help senior citizens living on fixed incomes get more for their money. Persons eligible are those over 59 years of age living on fixed incomes in areas throughout Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi where Kroger stores are located, plus Paducah and Mayfield, Kentucky and Poplar Bluff, Mo. Eligible senior citizens should register at any Kroger store office. Proof of age is all we will require for your registration. Those registering will receive full information on Kroger's Senior Citizen Program upon registering, and can begin immediately to get more food for their money.

A report by LAC staff member's EMMAN Schwab and Donald Roney recommends that the five per cent usage tax on new and used car sales should be on the actual money that changes hands and not on such "fictitious" standards as "manufacturer's suggested retail price" or "blue book value."

The report, entitled "Motor Vehicles: Certificates of Title and Taxation," is available upon request from the Legislative Research Commission, Public Information Office, State Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

The report also includes recommendations on how Kentucky could with an allowance being made for a trade-in."

"This would bring Kentucky's method of taxation in line with that of the majority of states," the report adds.

At present, a person who buys a new car in Kentucky is charged five per cent of the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the car with no allowance for a trade-in. On a used car the purchaser is charged five per cent of the blue book value (the price suggested by the National Automobile Dealers' Association for various makes and models of used cars.)

QUESTIONS INDICATE THAT MICHIGAN, Oklahoma and South Dakota are the only other states that tax on the manufacturer's suggested retail price in the sale of a new car.

Kentucky is also in the minority in not making an allowance for trade-ins in taxing new car sales, the report says.

On used car sales most states tax the actual sales price of a vehicle rather than its book value when there is no trade-in, the report adds.

Bills or resolutions regarding a title law have been introduced in every regular session of the General Assembly except on since 1956.

motor vehicle," the report says.

At present, in Kentucky, a person must present a bill of sale and a manufacturer's certificate of origin in order to register a new vehicle. A previous registration slip is all that is required to register a vehicle previously owned by a Kentucky resident, however.

A title law would prevent anyone from investing in an automobile on which there was an outstanding mortgage, the report says.

"If the seller has mortgaged his motor vehicle, he would have no certificate of title to deliver to the pur-as the certificate would be held lienholder until such mortgage is satisfied," the report adds.

A law could lead to lower rates on motor vehicle loans that would lessen the risk for the lenders that a motor vehicle subject to a lien would be sold," the report says.

One argument against a title law is that it would increase the cost of registering a vehicle.

A key question in considering a title law is whether titles would be issued locally or from a central location.

Central issuance would make it easier to determine if a vehicle was stolen, thereby discouraging auto thefts, the report says. Certificates also would be harder to steal than if they were scattered throughout 120 counties, it adds.

The main disadvantage of a centralized system is the time delay in certifying vehicles, the report says. Automobile dealers have claimed such a system would hinder the quick resale of used vehicles.

The best system for Kentucky, the report says, may be to issue titles locally in the same manner as present registration certificates, but to install a computer in each local office that would be tied to a central office where ownership could be verified before a title was issued.

The report has been presented to a special legislative subcommittee which has been studying the related issues of titles and taxation. The members include Representatives Steven L. Beshear, D-Lexington, chairman; W. Edward Whitfield, D-Hopkinsville; and Senator Doug Moseley, R-Columbia.

Murray Ledger & Times investigation revealed the disappearance of the money, in three separate incidents, various places within City Hall. The exact figures were difficult to precisely, sources indicated that of $570, $200, and $400 have turned up, the latest the night of August 7. Chief Brent Manning said this that while no official report has been on the incidents, that an investigation is definitely being conducted.

He said that while he doesn't suspect anyone in particular in his department, he plans polygraph tests to exonerate his people.

Dates of the disappearances of the other two bonds have been elusive as well, but the first may have been in January of this year, according to one source.

Manning said that stricter security measures are being implemented in the department, and a sign is prominent on the radio room door, prohibiting entry by anyone other than the radio operator, the shift leader, and the chief.

Mayor John Ed Scott said this morning that he doesn't have any information on the matter, but promised full disclosure of any developments in that area.

"It's just too emotional an issue," he said.

CUTCHIN MEMORIAL PLANS—Larry Bartlett (right), landscape architect at Murray State University, explains plans for the Carlisle Cutchin Memorial Complex on the campus to members of the Alumni Association's Carlisle Cutchin Memorial Committee. Located on the site of old Cutchin Stadium, the complex and a marker in memory of the late coach and athletic director will be dedicated at 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 3, as part of the 1975 Homecoming program. Shown with Bartlett are (left to right): Steve Hamrick and Pat Hurley of Benton, both members of the alumni council; Dr. Ben Humphreys of Murray and Buck Hurley of Benton, among the original promoters of the Cutchin memorial; and Mancil Vinson, director of alumni affairs at Murray State.

Grant Awarded To Murray State For Local Government Assistance

A federal continuation grant of $22,000 has been awarded to Murray State University for fiscal year 1975-76 for the second year of a program to provide educational assistance to local governments in Kentucky's Jackson Purchase.

Authorized by the U. S. Office of Education under the terms of Title I of the Higher Education Act of 1965, the grant provides partial financing for the project to match skills from Murray State to governmental needs in the eight-county region.

Dr. Roy Kirk, project director and chairman of the Department of Management, said the purpose of the program is to assist officials and key personnel in local governmental units in improving their administrative efficiency and effectiveness.

Dr. Rex Galloway, project coordinator and associate professor of management, added that the program, which also involves $11,968 in non-federal support, enables Murray State to provide a regional service by putting campus knowledge, skills and experience in management, research, and teaching to work in behalf of local governments.

Following a study to determine local government needs, several programs were designed and implemented during 1974-75 in the eight counties of the Jackson Purchase—Ballard, Calloway, Carlisle, Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Marshall and McCracken.

Galloway said the grant renewal will be used for additional research and the design and implementation of training programs both on and off the campus.

Three local government officials will serve as an evaluation panel at the conclusion of the grant period. Paducah

Mayor Dolly McNutt, Calloway County Judge Robert O. Miller and Clinton Mayor Lynn Lemons evaluated the 1974-75 program, which was partially supported by the initial federal grant of $19,930.

While most of the campus personnel for the project will come from the faculties in the Department of Management and the College of Business and Public Affairs, other resource people will be used to provide expertise in specific areas.

No Encephalitis Cases Reported Here

Two cases of encephalitis, or "sleeping sickness," have been confirmed at Paducah, but Calloway County Health Department officials report no cases have been reported here or in Marshall County.

A spokesman for the Kentucky Bureau of Health Services said Wednesday that 20 possible cases of the disease have been reported in Union County and two in Henderson County.

Twelve suspected cases in Louisville remain under observation, the spokesman said.

Encephalitis causes inflammation of the brain and spinal cord as well as tissues covering the organs. One variety, called the St. Louis strain, is carried by mosquitoes.

Symptoms include fever, severe headaches, sensitivity of the eyes to light, drowsiness and confusion.

Tappan Employees Blocked By Union

Management employees of the local Tappan Company were told by plant manager Dave Dickson to go home this morning when their attempt to enter the local plant was blocked by an estimated 150 members of the striking U. A. W. Local 1063.

Dickson told The Murray Ledger & Times that the company has set up temporary offices in a conference room at the Holiday Inn.

Murray State Enrollment Figures At All-Time High

A fall semester enrollment report at Murray State University, although not final, points to an all-time high headcount and full-time student figures that are the highest in several years.

Based on a tabulation today, headcount is 6,968 and, according to a "conservative estimate" offered by Wilson Gantt, dean of admissions and registrar, should reach about 7,850 when final figures are available later in the month.

With a good number of students yet to be registered, Gantt pointed out as "extremely significant" three full-time student figures already higher than in the final enrollment report a year ago. He listed these incomplete figures:

—Total full-time student enrollment of 5,689, an increase of 342 and more than 6 percent greater than the 5,347 last fall, and the greatest number since 1971.

—Total full-time freshman enrollment of 1,934, an increase of 199 and more than 11 percent greater than the 1,735 a year ago, and the greatest number since 1968.

—First time full-time freshman enrollment of 1,313, an increase of 143 and more than 12 percent greater than the 1,170 last year, and the greatest number since 1967.

Gantt said the final headcount enrollment in the fall of 1974 was 7,349, the highest in the school's history until 7,355 registered for the spring semester of 1975.

He explained that final enrollment figures will not be available at Murray State until the Monday, Sept. 8, deadline for on-campus registration has passed and enrollment figures are finalized for the Eagle University consortium at Fort Campbell and other off-campus offerings.

Jefferson County Schools Open Amid Absenteeism And Protests

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Jefferson County opened its schools today under a desegregation program that produced some confusion, absenteeism, and a protest in downtown Louisville.

School officials said the busing program generally appeared to be proceeding smoothly aside from some scheduling and traffic problems and some isolated incidents of attempted interference with movement of buses.

Operations were shut down or curtailed at three large plants after employees took the day off to express their dissatisfaction with the busing of 22,600 youngsters.

Approximately 700 demonstrators circled the Federal Building for 20 minutes, chanting "no integration" and "damn this court."

There were no arrests then, and U.S. District Judge James F. Gordon's office explained that "the march is peaceful. As of now, there will be no arrests." Earlier, Gordon had issued an order forbidding any protests involving more than 100 persons.

The marchers later moved onto the downtown mall, where they were confronted by police and ordered to disperse. Four persons were arrested by city police and a U.S. marshal made another arrest.

Some stores on the mall closed their doors shortly after the demonstrators appeared.

Six schools were evacuated after receiving telephoned bomb threats but Supt. E.C. Grayson said no explosives were found and the youngsters were permitted to return to classes.

Grayson said the busing program went smoothly except for isolated incidents of "people attempting to block buses with their autos. This was broken up by police."

Grayson said some buses were half-empty and attributed this in part to the fact that "on the first day of school, a number of parents always bring their children to school in their own cars."

He admitted, however, that absenteeism probably would be higher than usual for an opening day.

The two Ford Motor Co. plants suspended operations almost immediately after the normal 6:30 a.m. first shift starting time. A spokesman at the truck plant said 38 per cent of the 1,600 work force didn't show. And a spokesman for the auto and truck assembly plant, while declining to give specific numbers, said "We didn't have enough people to run the place."

International Harvester announced that it was operating with only about 55 to 60 per cent of its normal first-shift workers. It employs 5,300 here.

General Electric curtailed operations at Appliance Park but declined to say how many workers were absent.

All off-days and vacations for Jefferson County police officers were cancelled and some 400 Louisville policemen went through a refresher course Wednesday on crowd-control techniques.

Missing Bond Money Investigated At MPD

By DAVID HILL
Murray Ledger & Times Staff Writer

Bond money amounting to nearly $1,200 remains unaccounted for at City Hall, according to sources close to the matter.

A Murray Ledger & Times investigation has revealed the disappearance of the bond money, in three separate incidents, from various places within City Hall. Although the exact figures were difficult to pin down precisely, sources indicated that amounts of $570, $200, and $400 have turned up missing, the latest the night of August 7.

Police Chief Brent Manning said this morning that while no official report has been filed on the incidents, that an investigation is definitely being conducted.

He said that while he doesn't suspect anyone in particular in his department, he plans polygraph tests to exonerate his people.

Dates of the disappearances of the other two bonds have been elusive as well, but the first may have been in January of this year, according to one source.

Butz Says No More Grain Deals With Russia Until Dispute Over

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz said today there will be no further grain deals with the Soviet Union this year until a union boycott of the grain shipments has been settled.

Butz' statement came as Thomas W. Gleason, president of the longshoremen's union, threatened a sick-out unless court orders against the boycott are withdrawn.

"An epidemic can break out on the docks very easily," Gleason told a convention of the Seafarers International Union, a sister labor organization. "My guys can get sick as hell."

In testimony before the Senate Agriculture Committee, Butz said, "I think it will be advantageous on our part and on the part of the Russians to wait (with any further deals) until this labor situation is settled."

Sen. Henry Bellmon, D-Okla., replied, "It seems to me we're allowing (AFL-CIO President George) Meany to set our foreign policy."

Although court orders in Texas and New Orleans are allowing grain already purchased by the Soviets to be loaded on ships, Butz said he expects further impact from the boycott, called by the International Longshoremen's Association and endorsed by Meany and the maritime unions.

"The real test will be when they attempt to load Soviet or American flag bottoms," Butz said.

So far, only ships from third countries have appeared in American ports to pick up the grain shipments for delivery to the Soviet Union, which has purchased 9.8 million metric tons of U.S. grain so far this year plus another half-million remaining from 1974 sales.

Meany has predicted sharp increases in consumer food prices as a result of the grain sales, but Butz repeated his own earlier prediction of a 1.5 per cent increase late this year and in early 1976 as a result of the exports to the Russians.

The Agriculture secretary said negotiations between the Labor Department and the unions are continuing, as well as discussions with the Russians. The United States is seeking to obtain higher shipping rates from the Russians, thereby assuring that more U.S. ships and American seamen will be used in making the grain deliveries.

Until the boycott is ended and the shipping rates are decided, Butz said, a projected new deal involving an estimated 8.5 million metric tons to the Soviets should be delayed.

"It's just too emotional an issue," he said.

Butz said that recent food price increases were unrelated to the latest grain sales to the Soviets. He described the increases as only "coincidental with the reports of grain sales to the U.S.S.R."

LRC Report Says Motor Vehicle Tax Unjustified

There seems to be no justification for Kentucky's present methods of taxing motor vehicle sales, a new study by the Legislative Research Commission (LRC) staff concludes.

A report by LRC staff members Edith Schwab and Donald Roney recommends that the five per cent usage tax on new and used car sales should be on the actual money that changes hands and not on such "fictitious" standards as "manufacturer's suggested retail price" or "blue book value."

The report, entitled "Motor Vehicles: Certificates of Title and Taxation," is available upon request from the Legislative Research Commission, Public Information Office, State Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

The report also includes recommendations on how Kentucky could adopt a certificate of title law for motor vehicles.

In the section on taxation the report recommends that in the sale of motor vehicles "the tax should be on the actual sales price of the motor vehicle with an allowance being made for a trade-in."

"This would bring Kentucky's method of taxation in line with that of the majority of states," the report adds.

At present, a person who buys a new car in Kentucky is charged five per cent of the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the car with no allowance for a trade-in. On a used car the purchaser is charged five per cent of the blue book value (the price suggested by the National Automobile Dealers' Association for various makes and models of used cars.)

The law does allow a dealer to subtract trade-in allowance from a car's blue book value to determine the amount on which the tax should be based.

Responses from 48 states to a questionnaire indicate that Montana, Oklahoma and South Dakota are the only other states that tax on the manufacturer's suggested retail price in the sale of a new car.

Kentucky is also in the minority in not making an allowance for trade-ins in taxing new car sales, the report says.

On used car sales most states tax the actual sales price of a vehicle rather than its book value when there is no trade-in, the report adds.

Bills or resolutions regarding a title law have been introduced in every regular session of the General Assembly except on since 1956.

Kentucky is the only state without such a law. Maine having enacted one in 1973.

"Forty-nine states are convinced that a certificate of title is the most effective way in which to prove ownership of a motor vehicle," the report says.

At present, in Kentucky, a person must present a bill of sale and a manufacturer's certificate of origin in order to register a new vehicle. A previous registration slip is all that is required to register a vehicle previously owned by a Kentucky resident, however.

A title law would prevent anyone from investing in an automobile on which there was an outstanding mortgage, the report says.

"If the seller has mortgaged his motor vehicle, he would have no certificate of title to deliver to the purchaser as the certificate would be held by the lienholder until such mortgage has been satisfied," the report adds.

Such a law could lead to lower interest rates on motor vehicle loans "since it would lessen the risk for the lenders that a motor vehicle subject to a lien would be sold," the report says.

One argument against a title law is that it would increase the cost of registering a vehicle.

A key question in considering a title law is whether titles would be issued locally or from a central location.

Central issuance would make it easier to determine if a vehicle was stolen, thereby discouraging auto thefts, the report says. Certificates also would be harder to steal than if they were scattered throughout 120 counties, it adds.

The main disadvantage of a centralized system is the time delay in certifying vehicles, the report says. Automobile dealers have claimed such a system would hinder the quick resale of used vehicles.

The best system for Kentucky, the report says, may be to issue titles locally in the same manner as present registration certificates, but to install a computer in each local office that would be tied to a central office where ownership could be verified before a title was issued.

The report has been presented to a special legislative subcommittee which has been studying the related issues of titles and taxation. The members include Representatives Steven L. Beshear, D-Lexington, chairman; W. Edward Whitfield, D-Hopkinsville; and Senator Doug Moseley, R-Columbia.

While there the Shrine group toured Disney World, Sea World, and Cape Kennedy. Before returning to Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Baker visited with Mr. and Mrs. Weeks at their home in Winter Garden.

Wedding Vows Read At Salem Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Stewart

Miss LaRhea Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Miller, and Ricky Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony read in the summer wedding at the Salem Baptist Church with Rev. Virgil Blankenship officiating.

To provide a beautiful setting for the exchange of the vows, large baskets of blue, pink, and white flowers were placed on pedestals on either side of the archway that was adorned with greenery. The unity candle was beneath the arch, and the brass tree candelabra were on each side.

As the guests entered the church, they signed the guest register at which Miss Dana Miller, cousin of the bride, presided. Donnie Miller and Garry Miller, brothers of the bride, and Max Dowdy, brother-in-law of the groom, were ushers.

The family pews were marked with pink and blue satin bows.

Ron Hampton, organist and soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Selections included "Love Song," "Portrait of My Love," "Wedding Song," "Someday, Somewhere," "Ode to Joy," and "O Perfect Love." He sang "The Gift of Love" and "To Be Touched As One." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional.

Bride's Dress
The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was given in marriage by her parents. She looked radiant in her gown of tiered organza and lace skirt attached to a fitted bodice featuring a sheer yoke outlined in lace and topped with a high neckline of lace. The waist length veil was of organza, crowned with three white roses of the same material.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations, blue and pink daisies, and baby's breath with white satin streamers tied in love knots. She wore a dainty gold necklace belonging to her mother.

Miss Vicky Butterworth, maid of honor, and Miss Sandy Farris, bridesmaid, wore identical dresses of aqua blue satin-back crepe with empire waists. They each carried large white mums with pink and blue streamers tied in love knots.

Don Stewart, brother of the groom, served as best man. The groomsmen were Anthony Webb.

The ring bearers were Ross Yarboro and James Dowdy, nephews of the groom. They carried the rings on small fancy blue heart shaped pillows trimmed with tiny white love birds in whose mouths were the ribbons to which the rings were attached.

The bride's mother chose to wear a street length dress of rose pink polyester with a pleated skirt and pink lace bodice. The mother of the groom wore an embossed white and silver crepe street length dress. Both mothers had corsages of white carnations tied with ribbons the colors of their accessories.

Reception
The bride's parents were hosts for the reception held at the fellowship hall of the church.

The receptionists were Mrs. Betty Dowdy and Mrs. Doris Yarboro, sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Jackie Stewart, sister-

-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Inez Cooper, Mrs. Marie Jewell, and Mrs. Pauline Wainwright, aunts of the bride, and Miss Jean Miller, cousin of the bride, assisted in serving.

The reception table was covered with a blue cloth overlaid with white lace and centered with an arrangement of pink snapdragons, blue daisies, and lilies of the valley flanked by pink candles.

Highlighting the three tiered wedding cake were pink roses and white wedding bells. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom statuette. Cake, punch, pastel mints, and nuts were served from crystal appointments.

The junior ushers, Gene Dowdy and Jeff Dowdy, nephews of the groom, passed rice bags to the guests from fancy baskets.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride chose to wear a blue pantsuit accented with her mother's corsage.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Krewson, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tutt, Maynard, Ark.; Deanna West, Lexington; Mrs. Doris Yarboro and son, Ross, Glinda, Wendy, and Christi Warren, George Griffin, Clarksville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Waggoner, Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis, Memphis, Tenn.

Rehearsal Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart entertained the wedding party following the rehearsal with a dinner at the Colonial House Smorgasbord.

The bridal couple chose this time to present their attendants with gifts as mementoes of the occasion.

STRETCHING YOUR Food dollar...

A Consumer Tip from Extension Specialists at the UK College of Agriculture

"Enriched" grain products are good buys, according to UK Extension foods specialists. These are products that have had vitamins and minerals added to replace some of the nutrients removed by the milling process, and, therefore, offer more vitamins and minerals for your money than the nonenriched products. Look for the word "enriched" when you buy rice, macaroni, noodles, hamburger buns, hot dog buns, breads, and cereals; the specialists recommend.

CRUNCHY DIP

Stir enough heavy cream to thin two cups creamed cottage cheese slightly. Add a variety of finely chopped or grated fresh vegetables of your choice. Radishes, cucumbers, carrots, green peppers and green onions are good. Stir in chopped toasted walnuts. Season with freshly ground black pepper and a dash of dill weed, salting to taste as needed. Good with fresh vegetable relishes or chips.

Daughter, When Lonely, Has to Sleep With Dad

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My brother's wife recently died leaving him with a 13-year-old daughter.
When the child feels unhappy, afraid or lonely, or when there are houseguests and a shortage of beds, her father allows her to sleep with him. (This occurs every two weeks.) He says he doesn't want her to grow up remembering that her father made her stay alone at night when she was blue or upset. He worries about her emotional security as she has demonstrated a fear of losing her parents since she was adopted as an infant.
The recent death of her mother was very traumatic for her.
Could you or your readers offer some experiences that would enlighten this father or me?

SIS

DEAR SIS: Under NO circumstances should a 13-year-old girl be sleeping with her father. In fact, my psychiatric consultants state that beyond the age of four, no child should sleep with a parent of the opposite sex. If your brother tries to justify his actions, he desperately needs professional help.
No doubt he is also lonely, but substituting his daughter for his wife (which he could unconsciously be doing) is sick.

DEAR ABBY: We are the parents of a 1-year-old daughter. We both work and do not plan on having any more children.
How do you feel about raising a only child? I am tired of hearing that it's "unfair" to our daughter to be raised as an only child.

We feel that as long as she gets plenty of love and discipline she will be all right. Have you any statistics to support or oppose raising an only child?

TULSA PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: Don't look for statistics. You have the right idea.

DEAR ABBY: Recently I had dinner at an expensive restaurant and the total bill (for eight people) came to $60. When the waiter handed me the bill he whispered, "A 10 per cent tip is not included in the bill."
Is it proper for a waiter to try to hustle a tip this way? He caught me off guard.

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: It was not only "improper" but a good way for the waiter to lose his job. You would have done him a favor had you warned him of the consequences.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Statistics Point To Healthy Growth

Two news articles, one in yesterday's Murray Ledger & Times and one in today's issue, should be extremely encouraging to local citizens.

Yesterday's story revealed that Calloway County's unemployment picture is looking brighter and today's issue reports that preliminary enrollment figures at Murray State University point to an all-time high number of students attending the university.

The Kentucky Department of Human Resources statistics indicate that Calloway County's 5.0 per cent unemployment figure is the best of any nearby county. That's a good sign in anybody's book.

And couple that statistic with the fact that total full-time student enrollment at MSU is over six per cent greater than last fall, freshman class enrollment is up 11 per cent, and the total enrollment figure is conservatively expected to top the previous record by almost 500 students.

Any way you look at it, it sounds good for our community and we expect Murray and Calloway County to be the frontrunner in the area in climbing out of the economic doldrums.

Parkway Tolls Are Not Bad, Just Principle Of The Thing

By M. C. Garrott

Norman Hood and his family soon will be moving to Owensboro where he has accepted a sales territory with the V. K. Anderson Company, which sells windows and other building supplies to hardware stores and lumber yards around the country.

His boss is a fellow by the name of Bill Pruden, who also has a wide reputation as a practical joker. Few of his friends have escaped the brunt of his pranks. Nor, have the members of his family.

Not long ago, Pruden, his wife, Charleen, and his mother-in-law were driving west from Elizabethtown along the West Kentucky Parkway when he remarked:

"Charleen, how about driving a little while? Your mother can get in the front seat with you and I'll stretch out on the back seat and take a nap." They pulled to one side of the road and the switch was made.

Charleen had driven very little on toll roads and interstates and wasn't too knowledgeable in the toll collection procedures. They had gone a few miles down the road when Pruden raised up from the back seat and said to his wife, "Charleen, we'll be coming to another toll station in a little while. When you drive up to it just tell the fellow at the window that you have already paid at the last place."

Shortly afterwards, she drove up to the toll station, one calling for a 50-cent toll, and following her husband's instructions, Mrs. Pruden said to the collector, "We paid at the last station."

"Yes, I know, mam," the man said, his astonishment clearly visible on his face and his hand poised over the toll chute in case she needed change. "But you have to pay here again, too. The toll is 50 cents if you are going through."

"Oh, we are going through all right," Mrs. Pruden said, "but you don't understand: I said we paid for this one back at the last one."

"No, mam," the perplexed collector replied. "You don't understand. You paid at that station, I'm sure, but you have to pay again at this one."

About this time, Pruden raised up from the back seat and said:

"Aw, Charleen, go ahead and give the man 50 cents and let's get going. It's only half-a-dollar. Don't make a big deal of it."

"I know it's only half-a-dollar, William," she snapped, "but it's the principle of the thing. We've already paid back at the other station, and I don't think we should pay again."

The toll collector couldn't believe what he was seeing and hearing. Norman said with tears of laughter rolling down his cheeks as he told the story. Pruden finally rolled down the rear window, handed the man a couple of quarters and they drove

Vanishing Nickel

Another of New York City's traditions fell by the wayside when the city abandoned the nickel fare on the Staten Island ferry.

In absolute terms, the new 25-cent fare will hardly produce enough by itself to make a dent in the $6 billion cash flow problem confronting New York. But it does illustrate the fact to New Yorkers, and hopefully to others, that unnecessary municipal subsidies are joining the ranks of the dodo bird.

It also illustrates the truth of the classic homily that a penny saved is a penny earned. Even in New York enough quarters eventually will total $6 billion.

Understanding Alcoholism

Drinking Among The Elderly

a health column from the

Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration
U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Advancing years for elderly people can be among the most gratifying of their lives. The satisfaction and feeling of accomplishment one experiences, for instance, as he watches his family grow and mature serve to fulfill a basic human need.

Thousands of older citizens turn to alcohol, however, and it is not at all difficult to understand why. Unfortunately, for a certain portion of the older population, these years are clouded by depression resulting from loneliness, poor health, financial difficulties, and boredom. The problem is identifying these people, who have been edged out of the mainstream of daily activities by a youth-oriented society, and then providing them with the special treatment and attention they need.

It is sometimes the case that a family is able to detect a drinking problem in an elderly member, but out of reluctance to show disrespect, remains silent. Some families actually encourage drinking among elderly members, believing that it makes them easier to deal with.

Much support has recently been given to the view that proper treatment administered to older problem drinkers yields highly favorable results. In fact, some doctors claim that older alcoholic persons seem more responsive than the younger alcoholics they have treated. Many of these elderly people stop drinking as soon as they become involved in treatment, or find a sympathetic ear for their other problems.

In an effort to alleviate the deficiencies in making treatment available to older problem drinkers, the Federal Government has begun to include older problem drinkers as a special target group for treatment programs and other aid.

A survey sponsored by the National Institute on Alcohol and Alcohol Abuse is now underway to identify the extent of the problem as the first step in the direction of meeting the special needs of these people.

BLASINGAME

Let's Stay Well

Uproar Over Noise Control In Industry

By F. J. L. Blasingame, M.D.

A vigorous debate has been taking place in Washington, D. C., over the Labor Department's regulations proposed to control the noise level in industry.

Union representatives have been arguing for lower noise levels to protect workers from job-related deafness, while industry has been contending that cost of such noise abatement would be excessive, resulting in bankruptcy, for many industries.

Treatment and compensation for hearing damage in workers in the United States at present is estimated at $12 billion, and modification in equipment and processing to the required lower noise levels is estimated at $31 billion.

Quoted recently in The Wall Street Journal, Daniel Boyd, Director of Standards for the department's Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) said, "It's got to be the broadest standard we've ever proposed. When you talk about noise, you're touching every workplace in America."

The controversy began in October 1974, when OSHA decided to continue the regulation to limit noise to the present decibel limit (about that heard in a subway station), a level which has not been widely enforced since OSHA began in 1971 but which it now proposes to effectuate by insisting on the keeping of noise records by industry and by periodically testing the hearing of workers.

Alterations in plant design and modifications in equipment are the principal measures to be used, rather than ear-plugs or other ear-protective devices to be worn by workers.

The debate has been intensified because the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) desires to bring the noise to even a lower 65-decibel level (about that heard at the intersection of two busy streets). Many businesses contend that medical evidence is sketchy regarding job-related hearing-loss, that it cannot be differentiated from deafness due to noise exposure at places other than work, and that it cannot be distinguished from normal loss of hearing associated with aging.

Q Mrs. G. R. has expressed worry that Vietnamese refugees will transmit various contagious diseases among the American people.

A Health, Education, and Welfare has sent specialists from its Center for Disease Control in Atlanta to the various refugee camps to supervise health screening. The state of health of the Vietnamese was found to be generally good, and the risk to the American people of the transfer of communicable disease from the refugees is minimal, if not nonexistent.

Q Mrs. K. N. wants to know what is the "seven-year itch" and if it really lasts that long.

A Itching is really a worry and seems to last a long time. In truth, there is no such illness as "seven-year itch." The slang term probably applies to persistent cases of scabies, caused by a mite which burrows into the skin and produces an itching sensation. Scabies responds promptly these days to appropriate treatment.

Cecil Cooper Had Feeling And It Proved Right, Royals Win

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

Cecil Cooper had this feeling, and about an hour later he sent the Baltimore Orioles reeling. Cooper, a young batting star who has been overlooked in the hopla over Boston rookie sensations Fred Lynn and Jim Rice, got the notion late in Tuesday night's American League East showdown between the Red Sox and the Baltimore Orioles that something big was going to happen.

"I'm not a home run hitter," says Cooper. "But I was in the clubhouse about the seventh or eighth inning and I told Reggie Cleveland and Luis Tiant that I was going to hit one."

"I just felt like I would."

He did, and he picked the right time for it. Cooper's blast leading off the 10th inning broke up a sparkling pitching duel between Boston's Rick Wise and Baltimore's Jim Palmer and gave the Red Sox a 3-2 victory, stretching their lead over the Orioles to seven games.

Cooper now has 13 home runs, but he didn't hit No. 1 until June 27. Normally a first baseman, he's batting .352 as Boston's designated hitter, and that's tops among the league's DHs.

Wise, meanwhile, scattered eight hits and did not allow a walk in raising his record to 18-8. He is 11-2 since June 22, and has provided the pitching spark for Boston's pennant drive.

Palmer held the Red Sox hitless for 4 2-3 innings and finished with a seven-hitter, striking out 10.

Yankees 8, Tigers 0
Cattfish Hunter, 19-13, tossed a five-hitter for his 26th complete game of the season for the Yankees, and Thurman Munson backed him with four runs batted in, including a two-run homer.

Hunter needs only one more victory to become the third man in AL history to win 20 or more games five consecutive seasons, joining Hall of Famers Walter Johnson and Lefty Grove.

Indians 11, Brewers 3
Buddy Bell knocked in two runs with a home run and a single and Duane Kuiper capped a four-run ninth inning with a bases-loaded single to pace the Indians. Fritz Peterson, 11-7, was tagged for 10 hits in six innings but posted his seventh consecutive victory.

Royals 5, White Sox 4
Al Cowens belted a two-run triple in the 10th inning to give Kansas City its victory. John Mayberry and George Brett homered for KC. Jorge Orta for the White Sox. Mayberry's homer was his 30th.

Rangers 5, Angels 4
Tom Grieve belted his 12th homer and knocked in three runs to help Texas beat the Angels, who suffered another blow when it was announced that pitching star Nolan Ryan would probably have to undergo surgery to remove bone chips from his right elbow. Ryan, who has complained of stiffness for the past eight days, was supposed to start tonight but has been lifted from the Angels rotation.

60 Players
TUSCALOOSA, Ala.—A federal judge ruled that all college football teams will be allowed to field 60 players, rather than the 48 proposed by the National Collegiate Athletic Association for the visiting team.

New Job
OAKLAND (AP)—Syd Thrift, who formerly worked with the scouting departments of the Kansas City Royals and Pittsburgh Pirates, was named Wednesday as Oakland A's director of minor league operations and special assignments.

Thrift, 46, worked the past three baseball seasons with the Royals' organization but was released this spring. He will join the A's Saturday.

John Claiborne, 36, resigned last month as the A's director of minor league operations.

Reds Sprinkle Salt To Dodger Wounds, Cardinals Lose Again

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds are driving the Los Angeles Dodgers batty.

Generally conceded the National League West flag, the runaway Reds rubbed the Dodgers' noses in their dust Wednesday night with a 13-2 beating.

"Those touchdowns are hard to beat," smiled Steve Garvey after his failing Dodgers dropped 19 1/2 whopping games behind the leaders. "When you're beaten like that, you're just beaten."

That sums up the Dodgers' status now: They're just about beaten.

The Reds' decisive triumph Wednesday night, which included a 10-run inning, reduced their "magic" number to five. Any Cincinnati victories of Dodger losses adding up to five will clinch a playoff berth for the Reds.

In the other National League games, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the New York Mets 3-1; the Philadelphia Phillies turned back the Montreal Expos 6-3; the Chicago Cubs beat the St. Louis Cardinals 11-6; the San Francisco Giants walloped the Houston Astros 9-4 and the San Diego Padres nipped the Atlanta Braves 10-9.

Garry Nolan, backed by the Reds' big offense, notched his first victory over Los Angeles in three years. The Reds' 10-run fourth inning bettered Cincinnati's previous high this season by two.

Nolan, 13-8, allowed six hits in seven innings of work as he extended his season record at Riverfront Stadium to 10-1.

It was the Dodgers' worst defeat in three years. Andy Messersmith, 15-14, was roughed up for nine runs in three and two-thirds innings before leaving in favor of Charlie Hough.

Pirates 3, Mets 1
Bill Robinson's seventh-inning home run, his sixth of the year and second in two nights, broke up a pitching duel and helped Pittsburgh beat New York. The Mets' Jon Matlack fastball struck out eight, walked one and allowed only six hits before leaving in the ninth, but was victimized by poor infield play.

Phillies 6, Expos 3
Garry Maddox socked a triple and home run—the only hits off Dan Carriher—for three RBI as Philadelphia snapped a four-game losing streak with a victory over Montreal.

Cubs 11, Cardinals 6
Pete LaCock smacked the first grand slam homer of his career, capping a five-run seventh inning that carried Chicago over St. Louis. The bases loaded homer by LaCock came off St. Louis veteran Bob Gibson, 3-10, who earlier wild-pitched pinch-runner Gene Hiner to snap a 6-6 tie.

Diego over Atlanta before a crowd of 1,119, the smallest ever to watch a major-league baseball game in Atlanta.

Presents Money
NEW YORK (AP)—Commissioner Pete Rozelle presented a $10,000 check to the United Way charity campaign Wednesday on behalf of National Football League Charities.

Thirty-nine NFL personalities will appear on a series of radio and television spots in support of the United Way campaign this season.

Tiger Band To Perform At Reidland

The Murray High Black and Gold Marching Band, Kentucky's representative to the Orange Bowl this year, will make its 1975 debut Friday night.

The band will perform at halftime of the Murray High-Reidland football game which will begin at 8 p. m. at Reidland.

In addition to the majorettes and flag corps, a new feature has been added to the format this year which promises to make the show even better. The Tiger Band will now be sporting a rifle corps.

The first home appearance for the Black and Gold Marching Band will be a week from Friday when Murray High opens its home season in Holland Stadium with a contest against Henry County.

North Hopkins Football Coach Gets Suspension

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Madisonville-North Hopkins High School football coach Bernard Brant has been suspended indefinitely by the Hopkins County Board of Education for alleged misconduct last Friday night during his team's game with Christian County.

Madisonville-North Hopkins principal Floyd Brown said Wednesday that assistant coach Pat Adams will take over the head coaching duties, at least temporarily.

"Pat Adams will be filling the position temporarily while Mr. Brant is under suspension," said Brown.

School officials said that Brant ordered the school's band off the football field at halftime, claiming it was taking too much time for its halftime performance.

The school's band boosters club presented a resolution to the Hopkins County Board of Education condemning the coach's actions.

The Hopkins County Board of Education said it will check with game officials, confer with band leaders and seek a ruling on the matter from the office of the Kentucky High School Athletic Commission.

The board unanimously passed a motion which said: "Based on allegations of misconduct unbecoming a teacher by Bernard Brant, head coach of Madisonville-North Hopkins High School, we move that Mr. Brant be placed on indefinite suspension from all coaching duties pending further investigation by the board."

The band boosters, when presenting that group's resolution, said it did not want the coach to be suspended. Spokesmen said that as parents of band members they felt it was their duty to file an official complaint with the Hopkins County Board of Education.

Tough Eastern Has To Be Top Choice In OVC

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of a two-part series on the Ohio Valley Conference football season. Today, the Kentucky schools are featured. In Wednesday's Murray Ledger & Times, the Tennessee schools were previewed.

Forty lettermen, including six first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference selections, will form the nucleus of the 1975 edition of the defending Ohio Valley Conference champion Eastern Kentucky University Colonels.

Among these returnees is first-team All-American tailback Everett Talbert, a 5-10, 180-pound junior from Lexington, who also collected the Ohio Valley Conference's Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Talbert, who had nine games last season where he rushed for 100 yards or more, finished the season with 1,478 yards and 11 touchdowns—both tops in the league. His season's rushing total also placed him as the second-leading ground gainer in the '74 College Division II statistics.

Other first-team choices on the all-conference team who will return include wide receiver John Revere, a 5-8, 170-pound senior who led the Colonels in receptions with 30 catches for 632 yards and seven touchdowns and an average yardage per reception mark of 21.1; 5-10, 193-pound senior placekicker Earl Cody; 6-2, 235-pound senior offensive tackle Robyn Hatley; 6-1, 210-pound junior offensive guard Joe Alvino; and 6-2, 240-pound senior defensive tackle Junior Hardin.

"Our league will be very balanced again this year," said EKV head coach Roy Kidd who was voted Ohio Valley Conference and Kodak District 4 Coach of the Year last season. "We have several experienced players returning and hope to have a successful season."

Morehead State University's Eagles enter the 1975 season with something to prove.

"We didn't feel we were as bad as our record indicated last season," said fourth-year Head Coach Roy Terry. "We had some bad luck and couldn't bounce back."

The Eagles will rely on 31 lettermen to improve on last year's 3-8 mark. MSU returns 20 of the 22 starters from last year's final game, including all 11 starters on defense.

"Our defensive unit has played together for three years and should be a strong point this season," Terry noted. "But, to be successful, we must find adequate replacements at tailback and quarterback."

From last year's accent on youth, MSU has rotated to the experience side. Twelve seniors and 26 juniors will provide leadership for the 10 sophomores and 28 freshmen on the roster.

In a year of new quarterbacks in the Ohio Valley Conference, Murray State will perhaps have an edge in Mike Hobbie, who backed the graduated Tom Pandolfi for three seasons.

"I think Hobbie will do a good job of running our offense," Racer Coach Bill Furgerson says. "He started four games for us two seasons ago when Pandolfi was hurt and we won three of them. He also completed 15 of 20 passes in our spring game which proves he can throw well."

Furgerson has a big hole to fill at running back because of All-American Don Clayton's graduation; but Art Kennedy played well in his few appearances last season and could be the answer. All the receivers of last season are back, but the offensive unit will be short on both experience and depth in the line. However, center will be in the good hands of Tony Menendez, who has started three years although last season was his first at center.

The defensive front line will be led by tackle Jay Waddie, the team captain. The linebackers were switched about a bit in the spring, but there's good talent and a lot of hustle in players like David McDonald and Don Hettich.

The defensive secondary set a Murray record for interceptions last fall and Bruce Walker led the Ohio Valley Conference with nine. That unit is in tact for this season and should again be one of the best in the league.

When Western Kentucky Head Coach Jimmy Feix was asked to list the strong points for his 1975 Hilltoppers, he said quickly, "Experience." Then he explained, "We'll probably have more older players on this team than any other we've had here, with 17 seniors scheduled to return."

Much of that strength in experience will lie with the Hilltoppers' defensive unit. The core of that defense will be the linebackers, where three experienced players are present—senior Rick Green (an All-Ohio Valley Conference selection last year), senior Carl Williams, and sophomore Biff Madon.

The secondary should be strong despite the loss of Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Virgil Livers. The other two deep backs, Rick Caswell and John Leathers, return along with Fred Kimmiller, who started two games last season as a freshman.

The line, headed by Karl Anderson, All-Ohio Valley Conference Keith Tandy, and Dale Young, should be more than adequate.

Offensively, the picture presents more question marks because quarterback Doug Davis, tackle Greg Lewis, fullback Arnold Snardon, and wide receiver Dwight Grooms are all coming back off knee surgery.

Bill Smith, who saw quite a bit of action a year ago, is the heir-apparent at quarterback and speedy Lawrence Jefferson returns to the tailback slot.

The line is anchored by All-Ohio Valley Conference center Dave Carter, but the key there (according to Feix) could be whether Lewis—or a capable replacement—can do the job at the strong tackle position.

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of a two-part series on the Murray High Tiger football team. Today, the defensive unit is featured. In Wednesday's Murray Ledger & Times, the offensive unit was previewed.

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor
November 16, 1974.

There was a wild celebration going on in the locker room as Murray High had just defeated Glasgow 28-0. Glasgow was supposed to have the toughest defensive football team in Kentucky.

That was the beginning of it all. It ended on a cool day in Richmond when that same defensive unit for the Tigers went on to shutout Beechwood 14-0 and bring the Class A State title to Murray.

Or did it really end in Richmond? The thrill of playing solid defensive football; it becomes a tradition if the proper elements are involved. Those elements are confidence, work and cooperation.

Seven of the 11 starters off last year's super defensive team are gone. But even without them, the odds are Murray High is going to have one blasted tough defensive club.

Just how tough? Last year, the Tigers rolled up three shutouts, had eight games in which the opposition scored just one touchdown and on the season, outscored the opponents 292-90.

Just how tough? They might be able to do it again. Heading the defensive corps are senior co-captains Tony Boone and Tony Thurmond. Last year, Boone was named the First-

Murray Club To Hold Net Tourney

The Murray Country Club will hold its Club Tennis Tournament this Saturday and Sunday. It is closed and only members of the club may play.

Events will be men and women's singles, men and women's doubles and mixed doubles.

Play will begin at 9 a. m. Saturday.

Anyone wishing to enter should call Ron Beshar at 753-4140 or 753-4331.

Team All-State and set a new school record with 23 unassisted tackles against powerful Hopkinsville.

Both Boone and Thurmond are top defensive players, hard-nosed people who love making contact on Friday nights. And with those two returning, plus a crop of outstanding young players, Tiger opponents will probably be feeling bumps and bruises before they've even taken the field.

Whose gone from last year? The two giant defensive tackles, Steve Porter and Craig Suiter. Also gone are defensive end Eli Alexander, tigerback Doug Shelton, cornerback Brad Barnett, safety Dale McCuiston and cornerback Ken Grogan.

The defensive line this year should be tough, but basically inexperienced. Tim Garland, a rugged 230-pound junior, will start at one tackle spot while David Kennedy, a promising 210-pound junior, will start at the other tackle position.

They will get plenty of backup help from Tim Lane, Pat McMillen and David Cathey. The most experienced of the defensive front four is Thurmond, who will play at one end.

Thurmond, a 190-pound senior, will start along with Sam Chadwick, a 195-pound senior who was ill most of last season.

Backing up at defensive ends will be Barry Wells and Eddie Rollins, both of whom saw a lot of action last season in the 11-2 Tiger campaign.

Perhaps the strongest spots on the team are the inside linebacker positions where Boone will start along with 190-pound junior strongman Andy Ryan. Backing up will be sophomores Frank Gilliam and Kenn Perkins and senior Robbie Hibbard.

Senior Keith Tabers will start at tigerback, or the strong side linebacker. Backing will be Mark Vinson. At the weak side, or willieback, will be Donnie Winchester, a 181-pound junior who has shown vast improvement. Backing at the weak side will be Kerry Thompson and Richie Richardson.

A group of players are battling for the three spots in the secondary. They include Darrell Foster, Lindsey Hudspeth, Tony Bayless, Kevin Shahan, Kerry Thompson, Lindy Suiter, Randy Orr and Todd Harrison.

"We should be tough, I'd say, at the defensive tackle positions," Tiger coach John Hina said. "We'll have about five people we can rotate with confidence and that will enable us to keep fresh people in the game."

"As far as the defensive ends, we probably have less experience there than anyplace else. The only one who has played much there is Thurmond but we should have ample strength."

"The overall corps of our defense has to be strengthened by Boone and Ryan. Boone is a three-year starter and Ryan will be starting for his second season. The inside linebacker positions should be our major strength."

Hina said his secondary lacks the experience but size-wise, will be larger than last year's secondary. "Speed-wise, the secondary has yet to be tested," Hina added.

"We have a bunch of highly aggressive kids. I don't see any reason why defense shouldn't be our strong point again this year."

The season opener at Reidland will start at 8 p. m. Friday. Reidland is 1-0 on the year with a win last week over Marshall County, 22-0.

"From what we observed against Marshall County, Reidland looks to be very strong," Hina said.

"Defensive-wise, they are much improved and probably bigger than we are."

Reidland sports a new offensive coordinator, that being Don Shelton, former Murray State football coach and a man who is very familiar with Murray High, since his son Doug was one of the keys for the Tigers last year.

And with Shelton as the offensive coordinator, it's a safe bet the Tigers will run into all sorts of different offenses to test the defense.

Reidland will have 14 seniors returning, including their fine runningback Bruce Austin and quarterback Dave Powell. Also back is tight end David Jerigan, a three-year starter.

So Friday night will separate the men from the boys and the Tiger defense will get a formidable test the first time out.

Hostages Released By Gunman In Downtown Albany Early Today

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A 17-hour siege in a downtown coffee shop ended early today when authorities announced the release of at least seven hostages and the surrender of a man who held them at gunpoint. Shortly after 8 a.m. an FBI agent reported that "all seven hostages" are safe and that the suspect was being held in the building where moments before he had held the hostages captive.

Earlier it had been reported that there were nine hostages in the building.

"It was a matter of talking to him throughout the night," said Albany Police Chief Edward McArdle. "The man gave up the hostages and gave himself up."

"The hostages have all been released unharmed," McArdle said.

Agent-in-charge Robert Kent of the FBI said, "It was an excellent example of cooperation between local, state and federal officers."

The tense vigil began when a man earlier allegedly robbed a bank, shot a policeman and clubbed a bank guard. Police said the man ran into the downtown coffee shop and kept officers at bay overnight.

Police from the various agencies sealed off the area and bargained by telephone with the unidentified man.

An unidentified woman hostage was released about midnight Wednesday. She was said to be suffering from an unspecified medical problem. That was the first break in the siege that began following the robbery about 3 p.m. Wednesday.

State Assemblyman Thomas Brown, who was in and out of the building talking with police during the siege, said he had been told there were nine hostages. He said they were a man, believed to be the owner of the shop; his wife; their three children, ages 14, 12, and 7; two waitresses and two other women. None of the hostages was identified immediately.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

It may be more difficult to achieve in little things now than it was to attain on a large scale in the past. A test period for your composure, dignity and good judgment.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Principles and values must be well considered now. If you avoid extremes, you can have a satisfactory day. Especially favored: artists, teachers, students, agriculturists.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

Meet as many people as you can now—studying them objectively and listening to all points of view. You will not only enjoy the contacts but widen your mental horizons considerably.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Be patient if temporarily stymied in some project in which you are involved. Some new factors seem to be up for consideration. Keep eyes and ears open!

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Some unusual situations indicated. In all dealings, be direct. Avoid devious tactics or approach, and give others the benefit of any doubt.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Don't hesitate to engage in a novel enterprise if it's worthwhile, regardless of your present situation. You may find a new, if different, road to success.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Your artistic touch will be needed to brighten the "bare spots." And DO be practical about fundamentals, domestic concerns, children's affairs. Don't harbor prejudices.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Mostly favorable influences. Do not let pressures or tensions hamper steady, well-tempered action. Especially favored: business and organizational affairs.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

A notable day for presenting new ideas; also old ones carefully treated to get the most good still left in them. Your talents should shine now.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Don't let the a.m. disappointments get you down. Good progress indicated during the hours after noon. Try to force the pace.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Your day to get ahead! An associate of importance will be surprisingly helpful when asked for advice.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

In making changes or starting anything new, consider all possible outcomes. Weakness in spots may have to be shored up.

YOU BORN TODAY

have a rare talent for knowing how to please others and how to get the most of what you undertake. You have the traditional Virgoan practicality but are less conventional and inhibited than many of your Sign. You have a keen intellect and are greatly attracted to the scientific, but you do not fit the picture of the cut and dried scientist buried in research and records. Rather, because of your lively imagination and truly remarkable intuition, you are the type who comes up with brilliant ideas which, no matter how unique, are always workable. Other fields in which you are talented and which could lead to outstanding success: music, writing, politics, the law, medicine, lecturing, dramatic criticism.

Trenton Citizens Coping With Water System Inconvenience

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — Downtown at Central High School, where a 7,000-gallon tank truck and a 4,000-gallon truck were parked in the circular driveway, only one customer showed up for water all day.

That was Jose Colon. Yes, he had water at his house, but he wanted his two allotted gallons anyway, he said.

Colon explained self-consciously that his wife was leery about giving the baby boiled tap water — a precaution the health department suggested homeowners ought to take during the emergency.

You had to look close. True, trailers labeled "Command Post" and "Disaster Control" were parked at curbs, the state Assembly canceled its Thursday session, clattering helicopters unloaded TV camera crews, car-washes shut down and industrial plants closed.

Also, the executive staff parking lot at the State House emptied at 3 p. m. Wednesday when the governor told everybody who was "nonessential" to go home. The exodus provided a laugh for the day.

But in the main, the daily routine was hardly interrupted in this metropolitan area of 250,000 people despite a ruptured water system that might have caused a catastrophe.

That horror — living without life's ultimate essential, even for a short time — did not occur for several reasons.

For one, businesses that consumed water closed down, lessening the demand. Indeed, one business, a brewery, even time.

pumped water from its artesian well into the system.

Further, Trentonians did their duty, forgetting their baths and their gardens for a time.

Two Charged With Paducah Kidnaping

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP)—Two men who escaped from the Kentucky State Penitentiary on June 21 have been charged with kidnaping in connection with an incident that occurred soon after they fled the prison, according to federal officials.

U.S. Magistrate Ron Daniels said Wednesday that John Eastep and Marvin Smith, both of Jefferson County, have been charged with kidnaping Richard Shoemaker, 21, and Celia Ford, 22, at a park in Paducah soon after their escape from the Eddyville institution.

Shoemaker and Miss Ford allegedly were forced to accompany the two convicts in a car but managed to escape from the vehicle in a rural area of Union County, Daniels said.

They notified police, and Eastep was captured the day of the escape, officials said, while Smith was caught the next day.

Both were sentenced to 10 years in prison Tuesday for first-degree robbery in connection with the escape. Both had pleaded innocent, contending that Shoemaker had volunteered to transport them and that he gave them $10.

The two also have been charged with first degree escape, which carries a penalty of five to 10 years imprisonment.

Eastep and Smith allegedly escaped by overpowering and binding with ropes a prison supervisor and another inmate, according to Prison Supt. Henry Cowan.

At the time of the escape, Eastep was serving time for burglary, armed robbery and breaking into an outbuilding, and Smith was serving time for armed robbery.

Production Halted At General Tire

Production at the General Tire plant in Mayfield remained halted today following a wildcat strike by workers on the mid-night shift Wednesday.

Neither company nor union officials have disclosed the cause of the walkout, but local United Rubber Workers president Larry Lain said the strike was unauthorized and urged the workers to return to their jobs.

DANGER OF WRONG PRICING

Since human nature is predictable, there is a better than even chance that you'll put the wrong selling price on your home if you arrive at it yourself.

You may price it far above its fair market value because of sentimental attachment, expenditures you have made, or by heeding a well-meaning friend's advice. A home remaining on the market for months due to over-pricing, frequently becomes a "White Elephant." It eventually sells for a much lower figure than it would have brought originally - had it been priced realistically.

On the other hand, you might under-price it because of unfamiliarity with the local market. This would be financial folly. Your safest bet is to list your home with a Realtor who will help you price it correctly from the start and sell it for the best profit.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at PURDUM & THURMAN REAL ESTATE, 407 Maple St., Murray, Phone: 753-4451. We're here to help!
